

115TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

S. _____

To amend title 18, United States Code, to specify lynching as a deprivation of civil rights, and for other purposes.

---

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

Ms. HARRIS (for herself, Mr. SCOTT, and Mr. BOOKER) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on

---

A BILL

To amend title 18, United States Code, to specify lynching as a deprivation of civil rights, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Justice for Victims
5 of Lynching Act of 2018”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

8 (1) The crime of lynching succeeded slavery as 9 the ultimate expression of racism in the United 10 States following Reconstruction.

1           (2) Lynching was a widely acknowledged prac-
2           tice in the United States until the middle of the 3           20th century.

4           (3) Lynching was a crime that occurred
5           throughout the United States, with documented inci-
6           dents in all but 4 States.

7           (4) At least 4,742 people, predominantly Afri-
8           can Americans, were reported lynched in the United 9           States between 1882 and 1968.

10          (5) 99 percent of all perpetrators of lynching
11          escaped from punishment by State or local officials.

12          (6) Lynching prompted African-Americans to 13          form the National Association for the Advancement 14          of Colored People (referred to in this section as the 15          “NAACP”) and prompted members of B’nai B’rith
16          to found the Anti-Defamation League.

17          (7) Mr. Walter White, as a member of the 18          NAACP and later as the executive secretary of the 19          NAACP from 1931 to 1955, meticulously inves-
20          tigated lynchings in the United States and worked 21          tirelessly to end segregation and racialized terror.

22          (8) Nearly 200 anti-lynching bills were intro-
23          duced in Congress during the first half of the 20th 24          century.

1           (9) Between 1890 and 1952, 7 Presidents peti-
2           tioned Congress to end lynching.

3           (10) Between 1920 and 1940, the House of 4           Representatives passed 3 strong anti-lynching meas-
5           ures.

6           (11) Protection against lynching was the min-
7           imum and most basic of Federal responsibilities, and 8           the Senate considered but failed to enact anti-lynch-9           ing legislation despite repeated requests by civil 10          rights groups, Presidents, and the House of Rep-
11          resentatives to do so.

12          (12) The publication of “Without Sanctuary:
13          Lynching Photography in America” helped bring 14          greater awareness and proper recognition of the vic-
15          tims of lynching.

16          (13) Only by coming to terms with history can 17          the United States effectively champion human rights
18          abroad.

19          (14) An apology offered in the spirit of true re-
20          pentance moves the United States toward reconcili-21          ation and may become central to a new under-22          standing, on which improved racial relations can be 23          forged.

24          (15) Having concluded that a reckoning with 25          our own history is the only way the country can ef-

1       fectively champion human rights abroad, 90 Mem-
2       bers of the United States Senate agreed to Senate
3       Resolution 39, 109th Congress, on June 13, 2005,
4       to apologize to the victims of lynching and the de-
5       scendants of those victims for the failure of the Sen-
6       ate to enact anti-lynching legislation.

7           (16) The National Memorial for Peace and Jus-
8       tice, which opened to the public in Montgomery, Ala-
9       bama on April 26, 2018, is the Nation’s first memo-
10      rial dedicated to the legacy of enslaved black people,
11      people terrorized by lynching, African Americans hu-
12      miliated by racial segregation and Jim Crow, and 13      people of color burdened with contemporary pre-14      sumptions of guilt and police violence.

15          (17) Notwithstanding the Senate’s apology and 16      the heightened awareness and education about the 17      Nation’s legacy with lynching, it is wholly necessary
18      and appropriate for the Congress to enact legisla-
19      tion, after 100 years of unsuccessful legislative ef-
20      forts, finally to make lynching a Federal hate crime.

21          (18) The United States Senate agreed to unani-22      mously Senate Resolution 118, 115th Congress, on 23      April 5, 2017, “[c]ondemning hate crime and any 24      other form of racism, religious or ethnic bias, dis-
25      crimination, incitement to violence, or animus tar-

1 getting a minority in the United States” and taking 2 notice specifically of Federal Bureau of Investigation
3 statistics demonstrating that “among single-bias
4 hate crime incidents in the United States, 59.2 per-5 cent of victims were targeted due to racial, ethnic,
6 or ancestral bias, and among those victims, 52.2 7 percent were victims of crimes motivated by the of-8 fenders’ anti-Black or anti-African American bias”.

9 (19) On September 14, 2017, President Donald 10 J. Trump signed into law Senate Joint Resolution 11 49 (Public Law 115–58; 131 Stat. 1149), wherein 12 Congress “condemn[ed] the racist violence and do-
13 mestic terrorist attack that took place between Au-
14 gust 11 and August 12, 2017, in Charlottesville,
15 Virginia” and “urg[ed] the President and his admin-
16 istration to speak out against hate groups that 17 espouse racism, extremism, xenophobia, anti-Semi-18 tism, and White supremacy; and use all resources
19 available to the President and the President’s Cabi-
20 net to address the growing prevalence of those hate 21 groups in the United States”.

22 (20) Senate Joint Resolution 49 (Public Law 23 115–58; 131 Stat. 1149) specifically took notice of 24 “hundreds of torch-bearing White nationalists, 25 White supremacists, Klansmen, and neo-Nazis [who]

1 chanted racist, anti-Semitic, and anti-immigrant slo-
2 gans and violently engaged with counter-demonstra-
3 tors on and around the grounds of the University of 4 Virginia in Charlottesville” and that these groups 5 “reportedly are organizing similar events in other 6 cities in the United States and communities every-7 where are concerned about the growing and open 8 display of hate and violence being perpetrated by 9 those groups”.

10 SEC. 3. SPECIFYING LYNCHING AS A DEPRIVATION OF 11 CIVIL RIGHTS.

12 (a) OFFENSE.—Chapter 13 of title 18, United States
13 Code, is amended by adding at the end the following:

14 “§ 250. Offenses involving lynching

15 “Whoever willfully, acting as part of any collection 16 of people, assembled for the purpose and with the inten-
17 tion of engaging in conduct described in paragraph (1)
18 or (2)(A) of section 249(a) against any person, causes 19 death to any person, shall be imprisoned for any term of 20 years or for life, fined under this title, or both.”.

21 (b) TABLE OF SECTIONS AMENDMENT.—The table of 22 sections for chapter 13 of title 18 is amended by inserting 23 after the item relating to section 249 the following:

“250. Offenses involving lynching.”.
